Corrigendum

Subsequent to publication of the Information Bulletin for JENPAUH-2017, the Board has received a correction from the concerned Central Selection Committee on the eligibility criteria for admission into B.Sc nursing course.

As such Section 3.2 –a of the Information Bulletin is replaced by “The candidate should have passed in the year 2017 or earlier or appeared in the year 2017 from the West Bengal Council of Higher Secondary Examination (10+2) or equivalent Board such as AISSCE/CBSE/CSE/SSCE/HSCE OR other equivalent Board. She has to pass in each subject (Physics, Chemistry, Biology, English) individually and also pass in theory and practical separately (Not taken together). Furthermore, not only pass marks in individual subjects & theory & practical, she must have 45% marks (For General, OBC candidates) and 40% (for SC, ST candidates) in aggregate. Students appearing in 10+2 examination in science conducted by National Institute of Open School with 45 % marks are also eligible.

Medical Fitness: - Student shall be medically fit.”
