6. Highlights:

Calcutta Institute of Pharmaceutical Technology and Allied Health Sciences, (CIPT&AHS), Uluberia, Howrah, the second private self- financed, pharmacy institute in the state of West Bengal was established in the year of 2002. The institute is located on the Howrah–Mumbai Highway (NH6) about 34 Km from the city of Kolkata and well connected with road and rail.

Managed by the professionals under the charitable trust –URSCHARD, CIPT&AHS has developed in to a reputed institute over the period of time, imparting quality education in the field of pharmaceutical sciences. The sprawling lush green campus of the institute and the tranquil atmosphere presented an ideal environment to learning. Consistent high percentage of results and placement records truly reflect the excellent performance of the students and proven track record of the institute.

A team of dedicated faculty including nine doctorates not only engaged in teaching and learning but also inspires and encourages the students in pursuit of their career objectives and aspirations. With half of the teachers having more than 10 years of experience and retention in the institute, nurture the students in their personality and professional development and groom them as responsible citizens.

With more than 15,000 holdings/volumes including text books and reference books, the library subscribes for a large number of international and national journals both print and e-journals. The book-bank system caters to the needs of the students, throughout the semester.

The basic infrastructural facilities include well furnished lecture halls, well equipped laboratories, instrument room, animal house registered under CPCSEA, museum and well maintained medicinal garden and an out-door play ground.

Separate hostel facility is available for boys and girls students with round the clock warden and security.
